This is to certify that completed the Educator Connect Online - Naomi Hobson event and completed one and a half (1.5) hours of professional learning on Wednesday, 27 April 2022.

Program Content:

Participants heard from Kylie Neagle, Education Coordinator, on the touring exhibition

Naomi Hobson: Adolescent Wonderland. Naomi Hobson is a Southern Kaantju/Umpila artist who lives in Coen, a small town of 360 people in the centre of Cape York Peninsula in far north Queensland. A multidisciplinary artist, she regularly works across the mediums of painting, ceramics and photography. Inspired by her direct environment and ongoing connection to country, Naomi Hobson's Adolescent Wonderland, first displayed as part of Tarnanthi's Open Hands exhibition, is a series of photographs that tell the real-life story of young Aboriginal people in remote Australia.
