

A guide to using artists as a starting point

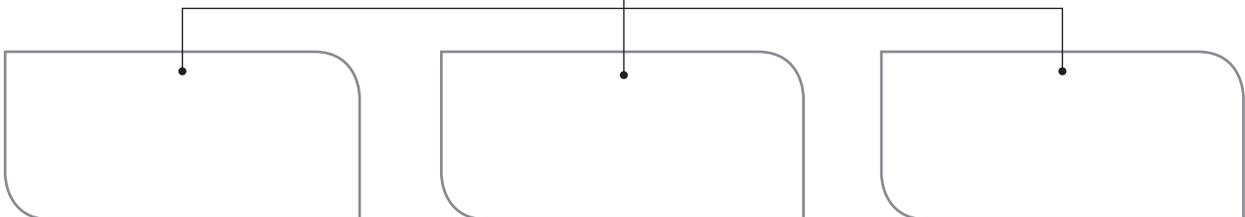

Who is the artist or group of artists?

What are the main ideas, themes or concepts in the artist's work?

How does this relate to the world of my students?

What are some ways students could respond to these issues
– without creating copies of the artist's work?

